

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1870.

Local Intelligence.

F. N. FISH Esq. and family sailed from San Francisco by steamer of the 21st. He comes via San Diego, having found by practical experience it the preferable route.

Mr. Fish will arrive here in course of a week from date, if he meet with no unforeseen interruption.

Gov. BASHFORD arrived at Wickenburg on the 23d inst., but was detained there by business. Will soon be in Tucson.

BRADY will get a very trifling vote in Yavapai, except on Salt river, and there not a majority.

BETS in Yuma county are freely offered that Brady will not get ten votes in it, and find no takers.

THOUSANDS of dollars in Tucson are waiting takers against Brady.

Sr. M. Borquez received a large lot of household goods from Sonora, Mex., early in the week. By the same train of eight large teams, much panocha, bran and leather arrived. Bran is not a dutiable article and probably that accounts for its importation to Tucson.

DURING the week, the nights have been quite cold, but no ice is reported. The days are clear and about noon, quite warm.

VENISON sold in Tucson this week at 8 cents per pound.

H. Orr and John Sweney, have gone to the Gila settlements on election matters. Will be back early next week.

The mail continues to arrive from San Diego in 4½ days. Passengers can rely upon making the trip between here and San Francisco inside of ten days, and business men, that packages, etc., can be obtained from that city in the same time, by Wells, Fargo & Co. to Arizona city, and by Capron's stages from there to Tucson.

GOOD JOKE ON THE BORROS.—Under a misapprehension, certain persons at Ralston, whose enthusiasm exceeds their discretion, lately sent Dooner $20 for subscription. Dooner will probably repay their kindness by expending the Arizona in a week or two, and thus save them being disgusted once each week for a year, with his filthy, slanderous, and ribald sheet.

OUR agent at Arizona city has forwarded us a list of 27 subscribers, and promises to increase it. Strong expressions of favor and patronage come from every quarter.

ROADMASTER Hughes is still putting labor on our streets. He now has a gang of unfortunates grading and straightening Main street near the southern line.

A person may each week read with advantage all the advertisements in the local paper. It's true business to peruse them.

ALMERIN GROW writes that his son, Ambrose Grow, left San Francisco for this vicinity some three months ago. The father says he is sick and destitute, and is very anxious to hear from his son. Any information of the son addressed to Mr. Grow, at San Francisco, will be received by him with pious gratitude.

A party of near a dozen Texans passed through here this week for Texas. One family was in the company. Texans enjoy residing alternately a year or so, at a time in California and Texas. It pleases us to note the happiness of these people.

JOHN W. BAKER, of Bluewater Station, has been recently made happy by the safe arrival of his family from Illinois.

DOONER's slanders of to-day are too silly and malicious to injure anybody but himself. Not a word of truth in his paper, of importance.

A vein of quartz has been lately discovered near Tubac, opposite S. W. Chamber's ranch. A couple of hundred pounds of the ore have been brought to the city, which appears to be very rich in silver, and contains some gold. The ledge is large, and the ore seems to be quite free from base metals.

SIDNEY R. DeLONG, Esq., leaves for Apache Pass next Monday. He has been in town several weeks, assisting in opening up the large stock of goods of Tully, Ochoa & DeLong. Their new stock and house were fully opened for business last Thursday. Read their programmes for Tucson and Bowie. They mean what they say.

Sn. J. M. ARIZA is one of our leading Mexican citizens, and stands high as a correct business man and public spirited gentleman. For these reasons, the Arizonian sings its dith and falsehoods at him with the editor's usual prodigality. Mr. A. exposes a few of the calumnies in a letter in this paper.

THE TUCSON FLOURING MILL, ETC.—On Thursday, we called into Lee & Scott's new flouring-mill in the southern part of the city, and found everything working admirably under the immediate management of Messrs. Scott and Benedict, both of whom are experienced millers. The mill turns out about 2500 pounds in a fair run of twelve hours. We learn that the bakers and others in the city pronounce the flour first rate. It surely looks well, and the wheat appears to be thoroughly cleaned of all sand and gravel by means of a screen and smut-mill. Flour well-sacked is sold at the mill for six cents per pound. Wheat brings three cents at the mill and mostly comes from Sonora. We shall be pleased to chronicle the financial prosperity of the enterprising proprietors.

The sound of their steam-whistle is a species of music that augurs the approach of the good time coming. The miserable dog-in-the-manger men who are pulling and chaffing about carpet-baggers but didn't have even so much as a carpet bag upon their arrival, may as well clear the track or make up their minds to stand up to their work under a more severe, varied, comprehensive competition. Every liberal minded man hails with unfeigned satisfaction the advent of active, energetic people. The proscription policy of the Dooner and Brady unrelaxable, if carried out, would leave Arizona forever to their imbecile hands and those of the savages. They are sweet-scented doves to manage and settle up a new Territory, but thanks to the good sense of the people, they'll have little to say in the matter, and less influence in any respect.

THE Washington Star, of September 30, says Col. Guido Ilges, 14th U. S. Infantry had just arrived in Washington from Arizona, and had with him his adopted son, the boy Stevenson, whose family, 12 in number, were captured and killed, by the Apaches, before his own eyes some seven years ago. The Colonel is a Prussian, has left for Europe, on an 8 month's leave of absence, to witness the opposing armies and the siege of Paris.

PAYMASTER NELSON and party, with Capt. Netterville, Lieuts. Garrett and Riley, and F. L. Austin departed for Grant, on Thursday at 5 P. M.

LT. SILVA who was unfortunately injured at the ball on Tuesday night is rapidly recovering, and will be all right soon.

Mr. M. R. PLATT, the People's nominee for co-governor, assures us that the Brady, Mowry, Dooner, Gary and Duffield party shall have a first-class inquest. He will do it up so well, that we think even their friends will be glad to hear of their political demise.

GAY and joyous was the party in Brown's spacious and elegant rooms last Tuesday night. The attendance was large, the music good, and the edibles prepared by Joseph Neugass tiptop. Such occasions tend to make people feel at home, and be more neighborly, and tone down even political acerbity.

Dr. Phelps informs us that the malarious fevers which prevail in August, September and October, are fast disappearing from our midst, and that the health of our city is pretty fair and improving. Notwithstanding it is a physician's delight to have a large list of patients, Dr. Phelps sets his on their pins as quickly as fine skill can do it.

WITHOUT exaggeration, we may say that the bar and fixtures in Mr. Brown's saloon surpass in elegance and taste those of any similar institution between here and San Francisco. They are gorgeous for any place. The entire establishment is roomy, tasty, comfortable and orderly, kept in holiday trim.

Dr. D. G. MARSH, collector of customs for the District of Paso del Norte, arrived in this city last Thursday, bringing with him coin to the amount of $15,000, which he places in the U. S. Depository in this city to the credit of the government. The receipts of this District for the year previous to Dr. Marsh's appointment were not sufficient to defray the expenses of the same, in the sum of $3,400. This is golden proof of the wisdom of Doctor Marsh's appointment, and of the excellence of his administration of the office.

He was escorted hither by Corporal Lyons with eight men from Fort Bayard.

Mr. McCORMICK's record speaks for itself. The people know him to be true to their interests; they have tried him, and he has not been found wanting. We believe he will be re-elected by an overwhelming vote. His defeat would be a calamity which would be felt not only in Arizona but in Southern California.—San Diego Union.
